'An honor to be chosen'

Tuggle to serve as Colbert parade grand marshal

By Margie Williams

Bennie Tuggle, of Colbert, was he was surprised when he received the news that he'd been named Grand Marshal for this year's Colbert July 4th parade.

After all, Tuggle has been president of the parade since 1999. He has served as the parade grand marshal for the past 15 years. Tuggle has worked closely with the Lions Club members who organize and execute the parade. He has also worked with the Lions Club members who organize and execute the parade. He has also worked with the Lions Club members who organize and execute the parade.

"I'm honored to be chosen," Tuggle said. "It's a great honor to be chosen as Grand Marshal for the parade. I've been involved in the parade since 1999. I've been involved in the parade since 1999. I've been involved in the parade since 1999."

Tuggle said he's proud of all the parade participants and the parade float. He said he's proud of all the parade participants and the parade float. He said he's proud of all the parade participants and the parade float.

BENNIE E. TUGGLE

Bennie and his wife, Barbara, moved to the Colbert area in January, 1995. At the encouragement of the late Paul Burroughs, Bennie joined the Colbert Lion's Club in 1999. He became active in the Club and later was elected President. He has served as the Club President for the past eight years. Bennie was the driving force in renovating the old Colbert School Cafeteria and kitchen into what is now known as the Colbert Community Complex and the home of the Lion's Club. Bennie and his wife, Barbara, have three sons, Mitchell, Michael, and Mathew. They are the proud grandparents of four grandchildren, Kiera, Katie, Anna, and Joe.

Mr. Tuggle entered the Army in 1959 as a Private and served on active duty and in the Reserve until 2000. He retired as Captain.

With gratitude, we dedicate this 44th Annual July 4th Celebration to Mr. Bennie Tuggle.

Thanks, Bennie, for all you have done!

Dancing with the Stars' fundraiser planned

Lohmeier, Loggins team to support Lions Club

SIX dance teams will be competing for the "Dancing with the Stars - Jackson County Style" trophy on Saturday, Jan. 25.

Each team has chosen a non-profit organization that they would like to support. Don Lohmeier and Kelly Loggins chose the Jefferson Lions Club.

Lohmeier has been a Jefferson Lion for over 15 years and knows the outstanding work that they do. Lions International is the largest service organization in the world and is dedicated to eradicating major causes of blindness and eye disorders. In Jackson County, three clubs, West Jackson, Commerce and Jefferson Lions, help those in need by collecting glasses and hearing aids, paying for eye exams and purchasing eyeglasses. Lions also help other service organizations such as the Boys and Girls Club and Habitat for Humanity.

Loggins is both an accomplished dancer and an experienced dance instructor. Currently, she is teaching at the Broadway Dance Center in Jefferson. Don reports that he and Kelly have a lot in common. She has been dancing since she was six years old and he has been wishing he could dance since he was six years old.

LOGGINS

As a retired Marine, Don finds that dancing is harder than doing push-ups. However, he has great faith in both Kelly's dancing and teaching skills. Lohmeier and Loggins will dance on Jan. 25 to help both the Lions and the Jackson County Arts Council. To find out more about the team and the other "Dancing with the Stars - Jackson County Style" dance teams, visit the Facebook page of the same name. Other teams will be featured in the coming months.

"You can help Don and Kelly, the Lions Pride Team, by 'voting' for them," organizers state. "Any money you donate will be split between the Jefferson Lions and the Jackson County Arts Council. One dollar equals one vote and you can mail a check to the Jackson County Arts Council, P.O. Box 598, Jefferson, GA, 30549 or go to www.jacksoncountyartsandcouncil.com and click on the DONATE button. Be sure to enter the names of your favorite team in the PURPOSE box."

Tickets for the event can be purchased from any of the dance teams or JCAC members. For more information, call 706-757-3535.
